

New City Fellowship

House Church Guide

NCF house churches seek to walk together in the gospel of the kingdom as we:

Worship - Sing, pray, share the blessing of God in our lives

Nurture - Carry one another's burdens

Share our needs and intercede for one another

- Deal honestly with our sin
- Fellowship around the Gospel of Christ's finished work on the cross

Discuss God's Word

- Believe the promises of God together
- See the application of God's truth in our lives
- Ask questions and wrestle with the text of scripture
- Allow the truth of God to shape us by the power of the Holy Spirit

Connect in Ministry

- Encourage each other in love and good deeds
- Seek to minister the love of God in Saint Louis
- Learn to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God
- Foster individual service in the ministries of the church
- Serve together as a house church in ministry

Take the Vision Beyond New City Fellowship

- See and participate in what God is doing around the world
- Connect with missionaries and take mission trips

Our personal relationship with God can be measured directly in proportion to our love and care for one another (1 John 3:16-20). We do not accept the cultural model that seeks every person's move toward complete independence. God's intention is clearly to move us toward a relationship of healthy interdependence (I Corinthians 12:21 ff, II Corinthians 8). We need one another for growth in our understanding and experience of God and to fulfill our God-given responsibility to love others as we love ourselves.

In order to help each other fulfill this kind of relationship, New City Fellowship is committed to a system of house churches through which the primary care of the people of God for one another can take place. Our commitment to each other as fellow members of God's family means we will walk through all the ups and downs of life together. It also means we maintain a fundamental commitment to each other — that everyone's basic needs for life: food, shelter, clothing, nurture, love, and care will be met through the body of believers. Pastors and deacons assist the members of the church in fulfilling this call to love, both by modeling and by teaching the congregation how to walk in the grace of the Gospel to fulfill this calling.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. [Acts 2:42-47]
